Q1: Building the Foundation For Greatness

365 Black History: Afro-Latinos

Colonial African Kingdoms

Latin@s are racialized in different ways in the United States and Latin America, yet an open dialogue about how such racialization impacts AfroLatin@s is neither popular, due to a nationalist discourse that elides intra-national differences, nor practical, due to a limited language to engage this issue. However, race is often at the forefront of many interactions, whether articulated or unspoken. It's common practice, for instance, for a parent to tell one's child, "hay que mejorar la raza," hoping their child mates with a lighter-skinned partner. Read more HERE!

#WeGiveBecauseWeCare #365Days

SCP's on a mission to build brighter futures for our future leaders of the world. Last year we groomed over 500+ New York City male and female high school seniors for the task at hand: LIFE. We heard testimonies about their everyday life in the city and how their families are just making it and we gave our own testimonies of how we all can make successful lives. Well, this year we plan to do it again and give away FREE prom attire, accessories, shoes, hair cuts/styles, cosmetic makeovers and two 30 minute workshops with two dynamic speakers. We will collect donations from January 30 until March 26.

Event Dates & Locations for Donations:

- April 1: Nelma's Threading World, 90-46 160th St, Jamaica, NY
- April 8: Madison Square Boys & Girls Club 2245 Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn, NY
- April 15: Restoration Plaza, 1368 Fulton St., Brooklyn, NY
- April 22: Thornton High School, 121 S 6th Avenue, Mt. Vernon, NY
- April 29: Bronx River Cornerstone, 1619 E 174th St, Bronx, NY
